Ms. Colbath shared a report from Mrs. Tuck and herself on the Legislative Committee of New Jersey School Boards. They met on May 11th in Trenton. The former Supreme Court Justice from New Jersey sued State of New Jersey Department of Education (DOE) for desegregation. If liability is founded, legislators will have to take action. There was a similar case in Connecticut (Hartford is being forced to desegregate).

Also, there was a standard update that they do on legislation and the biggest thing was that Governor Murphy signed a bill that expanded statute of limitations for sexual abuse cases. Formerly, victims could sue up to the age of 20. This was extended to the age of 55.

GO MATH! COMING TO ELEMENTARY SCHOOLS!!

After an extensive program review and piloting process, the K-4 Math Committee has selected GO Math! by Houghton Mifflin Harcourt for district-wide adoption in grades K-4 beginning in September. GO Math! will be replacing enVision Math by Pearson as the core math program used in our elementary schools. GO Math! is designed to meet rising state standards with focus, coherence, and rigor, incorporating the latest thinking in its comprehensive approach that engages digital natives with cross-platform technology. It helps teachers to differentiate instruction, building and reinforcing foundational math skills that translate from the classroom to real life. The program uses a 5E instructional model—Engage, Explore, Explain, Elaborate, Evaluate—to transform planning and teaching and develop mathematical understanding in students. GO Math! incorporates STEM content to connect with today's learners, and challenges students to envision the role math can play in their college and career plans. GO Math! provides a wealth of resources for the classroom and beyond, such as the Personal Math Trainer (PMT), which gives students personalized unlimited practice, real-time feedback, and a variety of question types and learning aids. For more information, visit <https://www.hmhco.com/programs/go-math>. The district will continue its math curriculum review process, reviewing and piloting programs in grades 5-6 during the 2019-2020 school year.

STIGMA FREE!

Fort Lee is proud to be stigma free. The Fort Lee School District incorporated a variety of programs this past year to help support the Fort Lee Stigma Free initiative. First and foremost, the district trained over 90 teachers in Youth Mental Health First Aid. This workshop focused on developing the staff's ability to identify and respond to acute mental health crises in the student population. Staff were also trained on how to incorporate mindfulness techniques in the classroom. Additionally, juniors and seniors at the high school participated in a mindfulness based wellness program called the School of Balance. This program sought to enhance the students' positive coping skills and self-awareness. We also had students participate in events outside of Fort Lee; a group of students from the high school represented the district in the Ramsey Stigma Free Walk in early May. These are just a few of the programs that were incorporated across the district in grades K-12 and were a great addition to the excellent work already being done by school counselors throughout the district. This school year has seen a lot of progress in moving our district toward the goal of being stigma free. We look forward to continuing the initiative next year!

NY Giants - Play 60!

The New York Giants and American Heart Association recently adopted Lewis F. Cole Middle School for their annual Play 60 Challenge. Numerous current and retired Giants players visited the school each week for four weeks from April 22 to May 17, including a community night held at Fort Lee High School on Tuesday, May 7. The purpose of the Play 60 initiative is to have the Giants players take over the middle school's physical education classes, and encourage the students to get 60 minutes of active play every single day. Players that visited the students of LFCMS included Saquon Barkley, Sterling Shepard, Evan Engram, Justin Tuck, Jonathan Cassillas, Aldrick Rosas and many others. The N.Y. Giants media production team put a highlight video together that is posted on our school district's website. A special thanks to the N.Y. Giants, Dr. Daniello and staff for making the most out of this awesome opportunity. Very proud of the Giants and Bridgemen!

Rock Project...

Students placed their painted rocks outside their school building, creating a beautiful mosaic celebrating each school’s culture of acceptance. Principals, guidance counselors, and art teachers worked collaboratively on this very special project.

What's Happening @ FLHS...

The Academy of Finance had a busy spring season complete with career readiness activities.

In May, AOF students participated in the annual Career Day, whereby students interact and listen to various professionals who tell the students about their careers. The guest speakers discuss their educational backgrounds, their past job experiences, and current career path. It helps the students navigate through their own career path. Guest speakers included Anthony DiMeglio of Sea Straws, Kimberly Osorio, Brooks Brothers, and Mike Medrano.

In June, the AOF Juniors took a field trip to KPMG, a Big 4 Accounting firm, where they had a worksite tour, learned about accounting and robotics, and interacted with new hires to understand the interviewing process and what the first year of work is like. In addition, the AOF celebrated with our AOF Seniors at the AOF Senior Recognition Night. This year's Seniors earned 7 college credits from Syracuse University and Fairleigh Dickinson University. In addition, our Seniors took the NOCTI exam (short for the National Occupational Competency Testing Institute). This test delivers a battery of assessments for students studying career and technical programs. Based on this test 5 students earned an additional 3 college credits and 20 out of 22 students earned the Workplace Competency Credential. We wish our Seniors the best of luck in college.

The Botany Class at Fort Lee High School, under the direction of Ms. Julieth Colorado, created a beautiful wreath for the Fort Lee Board of Education to present during the Memorial Day festivities held on May 27th.

MINDFULNESS PRACTICE OF THE MONTH:

Savor some silence.

During a period of enforced quiet, everyone goes through their regular routines—but they don’t speak. Start with 5 or 10 minutes and try to work up to an hour or more. (A family I know observes silent Saturdays from wake-up until noon.) Other types of communication—writing, signaling, sign language—should be discouraged, although you can give everyone a small note pad to jot down thoughts, to be passed around later. The first time I observed silence, I was shocked—not by the quiet, but by the noise. My mind rushed to fill the stillness with jabbering inside my head. After a while though, the mental noise lessens (but never stops entirely). You will notice that the world is more vibrant than before, because when you shut down the avenue where so much energy escapes, it is rechanneled to the other senses.
